Genoa, June 18.

BY Letters received from M. Pinello, who lately ſail'd from hence with three Gallies, two Ships, a Bomb Ketch, and ſeveral Veſſels laden with Mortars, Cannon, Ammunition, and Troops, under his Command, to reduce the Inhabitants of St. Remo to Obedience, we have Advice, that on the 13th Inſtant he appeared before that Place, which he found fortified with a deep Entrenchment along the Beach with eight Pieces of Cannon; and after having ſummoned the Inhabitants to ſurrender and deliver up the Governor and Officers whom they had confined, which they refuſing to do, he that Afternoon ordered the Cannon to fire upon the Town; and in the Evening a great Number of Bombs were thrown: And the Troops being then landed at a little Diſtance, they the next Day attacked and took the Place. In this Engagement four Officers and ten private Men were wounded, and two private Men killed of the Republick's Forces. The Inhabitants of St. Remo had ſent four Deputies to Turin; but having been refuſed an Audience, they were obliged to retire. Letters from Baſtia of the 13th Inſtant mention, that ſeveral of the Pieves had ſent their Chiefs to treat with M. Grimaldi, the Republick's Commiſſary General, for an Accommodation.

Copenhagen, June 26. The Troops concluded their Operations and Exerciſe laſt Saturday, and Yeſterday the Camp broke up. His Daniſh Majeſty ſeemed highly ſatisfied with their Appearance and Performances, every Thing having paſſed in the greateſt Order. To-morrow the Court removes again to Friedenſburg for the Remainder of the warm Seaſon; but it is believed they will return to their Reſidence in Town ſooner this Year than uſual, upon Account of the Queen's lying in, which is expected about the Month of October. Two Ships belonging to the Daniſh Eaſt-India Company are lately arrived here with the uſual Lading from Canton.

Hambourg, June 29. According to our laſt Advices from Stockholm of the 22d Inſtant, his Swediſh Majeſty had begun again to take the Bark, which kept off the Return of the Ague.

Whitehall, July 7.

The King has been graciouſly pleaſed, upon a Surrender made, in due Form, by the Right Reverend Father in God, Thomas Lord Biſhop of London, of the Letters Patent, whereby his Lordſhip held the Office or Place of Maſter of the Temple, to order other Letters Patent to paſs the Great Seal of Great Britain, for granting the ſaid Office and Place unto Samuel Nicolls, Doctor of Laws, one of his Majeſty's Chaplains in Ordinary, to hold the ſame for and during his natural Life.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all Internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again; and by James Esdall, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.
